

WOMEN'S RETREAT

Being God's Instrument of Compassion and Forgiveness

Saturday, February 19th

9:30-10:00AM Registration & Gathering | 10:00AM-3:30PM Retreat | Fannon Center

Retreat Leaders: Sr. Kate Hine, SND and Sr. Dean Pfahler, SND

After 23 years in elementary education, Sr. Kathleen "Kate" Hine SND turned to young adults as a spiritual advisor and mentor. She directed the Cuvilly House, a spiritual center young professionals, worked through the Coalition with Young Adults, and the Generative Spirit Initiative.

Her dedication to spiritual formation and relationships is contagious.

Sister Mary Dean Pfahler SND is a certified Boundless Compassion facilitator. Her previous work in education, as a pastoral minister, as a retreat center director, and a college campus minister has led her to help others discover the seeds of compassion revealed not only in the gospels, but in life. She uses Joyce Rupp's book on compassion as a starting point to help participants understand the nature and beauty of forgiveness and compassion.

Cost: $30 Includes Lunch | Registration Deadline: Sunday, February 13th

MEN'S RETREAT

FROM JOSEPH TO FRANCIS: GROWING AS MEN OF GOD

Saturday, March 19

Celebrating the Feast of St. Joseph

9:30-10:00AM Registration & Gathering | 10:00AM-3:30PM Retreat | Fannon Center

Retreat Leader: Tony Vento

As the founding President of Purpose Matters, Tony Vento is a consultant, facilitator and trainer for reconnecting who we are with what we do at the interior and organizational level. Currently one of two Circles of Trust® and Courage & Renewal® Facilitators in Ohio, Tony is affiliated with the Center for Courage & Renewal co-founded by Parker Palmer, with whom he trained. Well-grounded in the principles and practices of the Circles of Trust approach, he offers reflective practices for meaning and purpose, renewal and leadership, having designed and led over 70 retreats in the past 10 years, including Courage to Teach and Leading Together. Native to South Florida, Tony loves all water sports especially whitewater kayaking – which, like much of his life, gathers circles of people to build mutual trust, share stories, chart paths, quiet fears and enjoy what can be created by making the most of lively currents. Previously Tony served Case Western Reserve University as President of the InterReligious Council and Director of the Newman Campus Ministry. He also served as Pax Christi USA's National Program Director, Coordinator of the Cleveland InterReligious Task Force on Central America (IRTF), and Program Director for InterAct Cleveland, the regional multifaith and multiracial coalition.

Cost: $30 Includes Lunch | Registration Deadline: Sunday, March 13th
